STORY ABOUT US.

Security is a serious job, but we do it with a smile. At 1st Alliance Services, we take pride in handling things quickly, quietly, and with care. Our team is there day and night, making sure everything runs smoothly—from opening up and locking up to regular security checks—so you can have peace of mind.

Your Security, Our Commitment

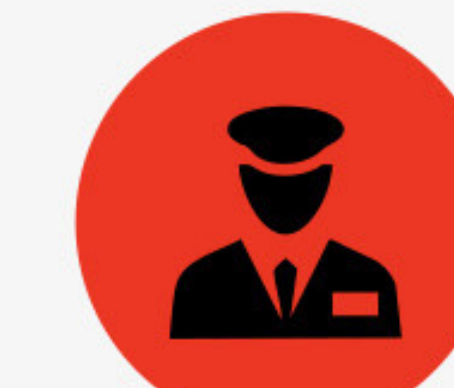

OUR SERVICES

History of protection

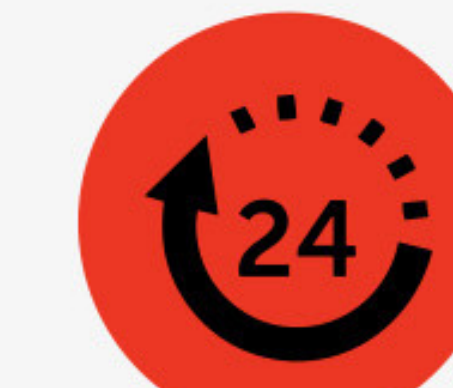

Since 2009, we've protected high-profile sites like the Indian Consulate UK, NHS facilities, corporate offices, and luxury residences. Our expert team delivers manned guarding, CCTV monitoring, VIP protection, and front-of-house security, ensuring seamless integration and discretion.

As an SIA-approved contractor and ISO-certified company, we uphold the highest standards, using cutting-edge technology and proactive strategies. Whether managing risk, crisis response, or crowd control, we adapt and lead. With us, your security is in trusted hands—because we don't just protect, we plan, adapt, and deliver.

“CCTV cameras can record incidents, but they can’t intervene. A trained security guard acts in real-time, preventing issues before they escalate. The real value lies in immediate human response.”
